Numb. 13436.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thurſday July 5, to Saturday July 7, 1792.

Whitehall, July 7.

THE following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Southampton has been preſented to the King by Sir William Heathcote and W. Chute, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, aſſembled at a General Meeting of the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with the warmeſt Sentiments of Zeal and Duty, to expreſs our ſincere Acknowledgements for the paternal Attention which your Majeſty has uniformly ſhewn to the Peace, Happineſs and Proſperity of your Subjects, and particularly in your late gracious Proclamation, calculated to obviate, in the mildeſt and moſt conſtitutional Manner, the baneful Effect of thoſe ſeditious Publications which tend to diſſeminate, amongſt a happy People, Doctrines ſubverſive of all regular Government, and inconſiſtent with all Peace and good Order amongſt Men. We feel, in our individual Happineſs and in the National Proſperity, the Advantage and Proof of a free Conſtitution; and we acknowledge with Gratitude your Majeſty's ready Concurrence in every Meaſure which Time and Occaſion have ſuggeſted to improve and ſtrengthen that glorious Fabric, which our Anceſtors laid the Foundation of, and which, confirmed by the Wiſdom of Ages, has been tranſmitted to our Care, cemented with their Blood; and we feel a Pride and Happineſs in teſtifying our Duty to your Majeſty, and Attachment to your Royal Family, by Aſſurances that we ſhall anxiouſly and vigilantly watch over and protect that Conſtitution, as far as we are able, from the Dangers of deluſive Theories and inſidious Suggeſtions, from open Violence or ſecret Machinations of Foreign or Domeſtic Enemies; and that it is our earneſt and unfeigned Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a happy and grateful People.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford, has been preſented to the King by John Buchanan Riddell, Eſq; High Sheriff, accompanied by the Earl of Upper Oſſory and the Honourable St. Andrew St. John, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bedford, beg Leave to expreſs our Gratitude and Satisfaction to your Majeſty for having iſſued your Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious and dangerous Publications.

We have been accuſtomed to regard with Reverence the Conſtitution of our Country as ſettled at the Glorious Revolution; and we cannot ſee without Indignation the Attempts that have been made to indiſpoſe the Minds of the People towards a Form of Government ſo happily eſtabliſhed.

We are ſenſible that your Majeſty's Subjects of every Degree enjoy the Benefit of equal Laws, and are alike protected in their Perſons and Properties, and we know that we are a happy and a flouriſhing Nation.

We

We attribute that Proſperity and that Happineſs to the excellent Form of our preſent Conſtitution and we are firmly of Opinion, that to preſerve that Conſtitution is one of the principal Duties that we owe to ourſelves and our Poſterity.

We truſt that your Majeſty's Exertions, ſeconded by your Two Houſes of Parliament, and the general Senſe of the Nation, which ſeems declaring itſelf, will effectually expoſe the Folly, and counteract the Danger of the deluſive Doctrines which have been diſſeminated; and we hope and believe, that inſtead of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects being in any Degree alienated or indiſpoſed by thoſe Publications, their Loyalty to your Majeſty and Attachment to the Conſtitution will be more fully confirmed and eſtabliſhed.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we do not heſitate to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall, in our different Capacities, endeavour to give Effect to your Royal Proclamation, and uſe every Exertion for the Maintenance of Public Order and Tranquillity.

John Buchanan Riddell, High Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Goſport and Pariſh of Alverſtoke has been preſented to the King by Sir William Heathcote and William Chute, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Goſport and Pariſh of Alverſtoke, in the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Goſport and Pariſh of Alverſtoke, moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept of this our dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and grateful Thanks for your Majeſty's wiſe and ſeaſonable Proclamation; and we humbly truſt it will have the deſired Effect in ſuppreſſing that Spirit of dangerous Licentiouſneſs, at this Time ſo prevalent.

Having every Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament to ſuggeſt, and carry into Effect, ſuch Alterations and Improvements, that, from Time and Circumſtances, it may be neceſſary to adopt for the Good and Benefit of the Kingdom, we feel (as loyal Subjects firmly attached to your Majeſty's Crown and Government) an Indignation againſt the Authors and Publiſhers of the ſeditious Publications and ſpeculative Opinions of Theoriſts, that have of late been promulgated with ſuch pernicious Induſtry.

May the Conſtitution of this Country, the Work of Ages and the Admiration of Mankind, be perpetual; and may your Majeſty long continue it's faithful Guardian, and long enjoy the Affection and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

Whitehall, July 7.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Oxford, the Dean and Canons of Chriſt Church, the Arch-Deacon, and the Reſt of the Clergy of this Dioceſe, humbly beg Leave, with the ſincereſt Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to expreſs our grateful Senſe of that wiſe and ſeaſonable Concern for the Peace and Happineſs of your People, communicated in the late Royal Proclamation.

We have been even aſtoniſhed at the Occaſion which created the Neceſſity of this Interference. We abhor the ſeditious Zeal of certain ſelf-created Patriots, Enemies to all Order; adopting the wildeſt Principles daringly and openly, and yet deſcending to the meaneſt Artifices and moſt clandeſtine Practices of diſſeminating their miſchievous and incendiary Notions through all Parts of the Kingdom, and among the loweſt and moſt uninformed Ranks of the Community.

The Time which they have choſen for aſſuming to themſelves the Direction of the momentous Concerns of this Nation is indeed unfortunate. It is a Seaſon, we all know, of general Happineſs, and of the fulleſt Proſperity; a Moment when no juſt Complaint of Grievance has been or can be fairly pretended; for we have been long accuſtomed to the Government of a Prince beloved by all for a ſtrict Adherence to the Principles of our excellent Conſtitution, and a ſolicitous Regard for the Welfare of his Subjects.

The evil Deſigns, therefore, of a few miſguided Men cannot have any laſting Influence on the Minds of a diſcerning and loyal People. They are already encountered by almoſt univerſal Deteſtation.

It muſt be the common Wiſh of all honeſt and conſiderate Men, that our envied Felicity may be uninterruptedly enjoyed by us and our Poſterity; that, to this End, our Civil and Religious Rights, as we now poſſeſs them, may long remain under the Protection of that Almighty Power, which has extended it's conſtant Favor to theſe Kingdoms; that, under the ſame Divine Providence, as at this preſent Hour, our Kings may happily reign, and our Princes decree Juſtice; and that, ſenſible of the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's good and able Government, we, with all Fidelity and due Obedience, may ever be too wiſe to meddle with them who are given to Change.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Beaumaris, in Common Hall aſſembled, this 27th Day of June, 1792.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Beaumaris, humbly beg Leave to preſent our warmeſt and moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's Proclamation, ſo wiſely and ſeaſonably iſſued, at a Time when divers ſeditious Writings are publiſhed and induſtriouſly diſperſed, and when there is Reaſon to believe that Correſpondences have been entered into for the moſt criminal and wicked Purpoſes.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we are poſſeſſed of, by the full Enjoyment of our Rights and Liberties, both Civil and Religious, we cannot but condemn the Conduct of ſuch as countenance Deſigns inimical to the general Welfare in Church and State, and who aim at Subverſion of all regular Government.

As it is our Duty, ſo it will be our Inclination to exert ourſelves towards the Maintenance of our ineſtimable Conſtitution; and the Advantages we derive by it will deter us from, and give us a juſt Abhorrence of ſuch deteſtable and pernicious Examples.

Signed by Order of the Meeting of all the Reſident Burgeſſes, Owen Holland, Mayor.

[Tranſmitted by Lord Bulkeley.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Buckingham, and of the Inhabitants of that Borough and Pariſh.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the earneſt Aſſurances of our humble and heartfelt Gratitude for the many Bleſſings which we have experienced under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and particularly for that Proof of parental Solicitude for the Welfare of your People contained in your Royal Proclamation.

We have ſeen with the ſincereſt Pleaſure, and concur moſt fully with the loyal and ſeaſonable Addreſs preſented by Parliament; and viewing, with the higheſt Indignation, the wicked Attempts which have been made to miſlead the People by ſeditious Publications, and to indiſpoſe them to the happy Form of Government under which they live. We aſſure your Majeſty that, deeply ſenſible to the Bleſſings of a Conſtitution which has raiſed the Wealth, Credit, and Glory of the Nation to an Extent unexampled in Hiſtory, we ſhould be wanting in Duty to ourſelves and to our Poſterity, if we did not profeſs, in the moſt earneſt Terms, our Gratitude to your Majeſty, and our Determination to co-operate with Parliament in every Step which may be neceſſary to ſupport the Meaſures which have ſo wiſely been adopted, and in every Exertion that can flow from the Zeal and Gratitude of a free and loyal People.

[Tranſmitted by the Marquis of Buckingham.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town of Wrexham, and it's Neighbourhood, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with heartfelt Gratitude for the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government; to expreſs our particular Thanks for the recent Inſtance of your Majeſty's unremitting Solicitude for the Peace and Welfare of your Subjects, manifeſted by your Royal Proclamation; and to make an humble Tender of our earneſt Endeavours to promote the Objects of it, by diſcountenancing, as far as in us lies, the inflammatory, ſeditious, and levelling Principles and Publications which have of late been ſo audaciouſly propagated amongſt the People, and by our moſt zealous Exertions to maintain, in all it's Vigour, the excellent and envied Conſtitution which we have the Happineſs to poſſeſs.

Dated the 19th Day of June, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by Lord Kenyon.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall, actuated by a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, entertaining a juſt Abhorrence of any Attempts to diſturb the Peace of it, and anxious to ſupport the Conſtitution of this Country againſt the inſidious Attacks of it's Enemies, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with our moſt ſincere Thanks for the affectionate Regard you have ſhewn for your People, in your late Proclamation againſt the Publiſhers and Diſperſers of wicked and ſeditious Pamphlets and Writings, which have an evident Tendency to ſubvert all Order and good Government in your Majeſty's Kingdoms, to introduce Anarchy and Confuſion, and to render your Majeſty's Subjects inſecure in the Enjoyment of their Lives and Properties.

We are reſolved to contribute, in the moſt effectual Manner in our Power, to diſcountenance all ſuch wicked and ſeditious Publications, and to diſcourage all ſuch Proceedings as tend to promote Riots and Tumults, and upon every Occaſion to ſhow ourſelves your Majeſty's loyal and peaceable Subjects.
